A Fall Preaching Program

By N. Vance Johnston*

MY church is a federation of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches of our community. The yearly plan books of the two denominations have been used in setting up this preaching program for the fall months. The program is worked out by setting a theme for each month and the sermon topics for the Sundays of each month are various developments of that theme. Special Sundays in the church year are included along with the general plan.

The program used in 1937 follows.

With changes in dates it is equally effective for 1938.

September

Theme—Looking at the Church of Today.

September 5—Communion Sunday. "The Church's One Foundation."

September 12—"In Defense of the Church." (An answer to a recent magazine article questioning the value of church attendance.)

September 19—Rally Day. "Our Church Objectives for 1937-38."

September 26—"The Church Moving Forward." (In the interest of the denominational emphasis this year on the study of the Rural Church.)

October

Theme—Personal Christian Responsibility.

October 3—Loyalty Sunday. (World-wide Communion Sunday of Presbyterian churches throughout the world) "My Lord, My Church, My Task."

October 10—"I Have But One Life to Live."

October 17—Christian Homes Sunday. "Making the Home Christian."

October 24—Stewardship Sunday. "Our Lord and Ours."

October 31—Foreign Missions Sunday. "My Part in Christianizing the World."

November

Theme—Christian Evangelism.

November 7—Armistice Sunday. "The Christian and World Peace."

November 14—"The Challenge of Christ to the Individual."

November 21—"Introducing Our Friends to Christ's Friendship."

November 28—"The Kingdom of God—And Me."

December

Theme—God Revealed to Mankind.

December 5—Fellowship Sunday. Communion. "The Family of God."

December 12—Universal Bible Sunday. "The Fountain of Life."

December 19—Christmas Sunday. "God's Greatest Gift to Humanity."

December 26—"Christmas Revelations of God."

A small four-page, mimeographed folder carried the program into our people's homes. On the front page in large letters were the words: YOU ARE INVITED. On the second page at the top were the words: "Four Months of Preaching to Which You Are Most Cordially Invited." Then followed the program as outlined above.

The weekly bulletin of the church was also used to keep this program in the minds of the people. Our bulletin is mimeographed each week but the covers are usually done once a month. In order to have the bulletins fit in with the preaching program, covers for each month were drawn up with an appropriate sketch on the front page and the theme and sermon topics for the entire month on the back page.

I believe that such a preaching program planned well ahead of time is of inestimable value both to the minister and to the people. It gives the minister a definite goal for his preaching and helps to guide the people in their thoughts and energies.

*Minister of the Federated Church of Croton Falls, New York.
